Industry Research Fund

Your donations make it possible for CREW Network to remain the leading publisher of research on gender and diversity and inclusion in commercial real estate—research that is helping close the compensation, advancement gaps and aspiration for women.

“Thank you for an incredible and empowering experience as a CREW Network Foundation scholar. I am thankful for your generosity in supporting me and the future of our industry. From the support at the convention in San Diego to the local support from PTCREW, I’ve had a great support team during this last year at NC State.”
